

Objectives:

Discovery a city in Germany

Researching 5 interesting facts

Organize a presentation using technologie

Presenting the city in a unique & informative way

Evaluating a classmates project

Procedure: Choose ONE city and complete ALL the sections below. If you would like to research more than one, you can achieve an Exe mark for your project. You will be responsible for the following information:

Part A : Lay of the Land

A map. Your map of German should have Germany as the country with the names of surrounding cities, bodies of water and natural landmarks (example: mountain range).

Part B: Factoids

As a class, it was decided to have 5 major points that could be important when visiting the city. In addition, there are some guiding elements to be specific.

1. The location (using your map)
2. Sites and activities to see and do ( min. 3 max 5) + little explanation
3. The population (Find the date that the information was published)
4. The local food and popular restaurants and/or fast foods
5. Date established or incorporated (How old is the city?)

Part C: Special interests

choose one of the following to conclude your research

1. Explain a historical event that is interesting and incredible that the city has to offer (find a newspaper article)
2. Inform the class about an unique fact about the city (home of the biggest pretzel) and why it came to be.

Evaluation criteria

The class will develop the evaluation criteria that follows all steps and procedure. They will be responsible to formulate what is extending, proficient, developing and emerging standards.

Resources
